

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Gertrude Stone, currently a Chapter 1 employee in the Division of Education, has devoted nearly twenty-two years of her life to employment with the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Gertrude Stone has dedicated these years to efficient and accurate accounting of federal funds and has completed all work in an outstanding and exemplary manner; and,

WHEREAS, Gertrude Stone has demonstrated a willingness to accept additional responsibilities and duties when requested and has performed them in a congenial manner, contributing to a cheerful and friendly working relationship; and,

WHEREAS, Her work has benefitted the education of hundreds of children in South Dakota who have had the opportunity to receive additional instruction in basic skills through the Chapter 1 program:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 2, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join with state employees and South Dakota citizens in thanking Gertrude Stone for her many years of service and wishing her many healthy and happy years in her retirement:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fourth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
